

JULIETTE LOW WORLD FRIENDSHIP FUND PATCH PROGRAM

PURPOSE: Participating in the JLWFF patch program is designed to increase girls' awareness of international issues.

Girl Scout Daisy, Brownie, Junior, Cadette, Senior and Ambassadors may earn the JLWFF patch. The JLWFF patch is an "unofficial" insignia and is worn on the back of the badge sash or vest. Girls must complete five (5) activities, including #9 (*) to earn the JLWFF patch. Girl Scouts, who have already earned the patch, but continue to contribute to the JLWFF, may purchase a segment that signifies an ongoing commitment to world friendship.

Requirements for earning the JLWFF patch:

1. Learn to say "Thank you" in four languages.
2. Find out how a person may become a US citizen.
3. Celebrate a holiday with international customs.
4. Plan an international program with or for another troop/group.
5. Have a "tasting tea" of international goodies.
6. Learn about five women from other countries (artists, politicians, scientists, writers, teachers and innovators.)
7. Name five major religions around the world.
8. Invite someone that has lived in another country to your troop meeting. Learn about children's lives in that country.
9. * Find out about the JLWFF and make a contribution to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund.
10. Plan a Thinking Day observance.
11. Name currencies used in six countries.
12. Locate member countries of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS) and four world centers on a world map. Mark the international dateline on the map and locate where Girl Guides/Girl Scouts are first to start a day. When your troop is meeting, what time is it in Japan, France, Iran and Venezuela?
13. Plan your own international activity.

When all patch activities are completed, return your troop's contribution to the Girl Scout Service Center. Include your patch order (contributions must accompany the order). Use the Troop Program Application in Inspire/Leader Program Bulletin.
